

Celebrating Our Oneness – A Benefit for the Servite Center

The Servite Center of Compassion located in Omaha, NE held its first Benefit Concert.

The Benefit was held both in Omaha and in Des Moines. The Center is sponsored by the Servants of Mary and offers programs focused on spirituality, healing, and issues of interest to women and families. Proceeds go to supporting the Sisters in the ministries that they offer through the Servite Center. Featured were

Sr. Joyce Rupp OSM, internationally known author, sharing her poetry from her book The Cosmic Dance and Sara Thomsen, singer-songwriter, sharing her reflective lyrics and music. The concert theme recognized and celebrated our common human oneness and our need to be more kind, just and compassionate to one another in a very complex world.

Sara Thomsen's thoughtful lyrics promote peace

Author and musicians share poetry and music